Much Sympathy for Davis. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Feb. 14.-The sudden ending of the trial of former Cashier Davis has been a much discussed subject in Washington to-day, and there is a great expression of pity that a useful young man should have been led into such desperate straits. Davis's ability as a business man makes a man valuable to his community. He was a hustler, had nerve to undertake great enterprises and make of them successes. He has been worth much to Washington's prosperity. Many expressions of sympathy are heard, and especially for the block in the heart of the city, was those who suffer most-his wife and children. The certain doom of the young man has increased interest in the gambling suits, and it is said these cases will be vigorously prosecuted in the Knox Circuit Court next week.

New York Advocate. Delegate Wilcox, of Hawaii, does not seem to be overwhelmed with diffidence. He introduced into the House of Representatives at Washington a bill to increase the salary of the President of the United States to $100,000 and that of the Vice President to $25,000, all Cabinet officers to $15,000 and members of Congress to $10,000. The salaries of Cabinet officers should undoubtedly be increased. As custom requires the Vice President to give up attention to business, $20,000 or $25,000 would be small enough. Whether the President's salary should be increased or that of members of Congress is doubtful. Unless Delegate Wilcox represents others, it would seem that Perhaps his main object related to the smaller sum named, which was the salary of the Governor of Hawali, which he would fix at $8,000.
